

I understand that Sinclair Media plans to air an anti-Kerry movie days before the election. Such biased election campaigning by a large media corporation, without equal time for opposing views, is against the law and needs to be addressed.